

LNG bunkering

– guidance, safety and future outlook

Session I

Day moderator: Ricardo Batista, Project Officer, EMSA CONFIRMED

|                      |  |
|----------------------|--|
| 9:30 – 10:00  | Registration  |
| 10:00 – 11:15 | Guidance on LNG Bunkering to Port Authorities and AdministrationsRicardo Batista, Project Officer, EMSA <small>CONFIRMED</small>                 |
|                      | Issues concerning an implementation of LNG as a fuelDr. Eng. Stefan Jankowski, Maritime University of Szczecin <small>CONFIRMED</small>          |
|                      | Synergies and Opportunities for LNG in PortsDr. Lawrence Henesey, Assistant Professor, Blekinge Institute of Technology <small>CONFIRMED</small> |
| 11:15 – 11:45 | Coffee Break  |

Session II

|                      |   |
|----------------------|---|
| 11:45 – 13:00 | Future of LNG in the Port of Gdynia, safety of LNG bunkeringMichał Daczuk, Project Manager, Port of Gdynia <small>CONFIRMED</small>   |
|                      | Ship-to-ship vs. Truck-to-ship: a comparison of operational, commercial &amp; technical aspects of LNG bunkeringJan Schubert, Senior Manager, Nauticor <small>CONFIRMED</small> |
|                      | Benefits of LNG as fuel for logistic chain at road and seaKarol Wiczorek, Regional manager, Cryogas <small>CONFIRMED</small>  |

